

An Irish Pub

Key C

Am C G
Well, you walk into a city street, you could be in Peru,
Am G
And you hear a distant calling, and you know it's meant for you,
Am C G
And you drop what you were doing, and you join the merry mob,
Am G Am
And before you know just where you are, your in an Irish pub.

Chorus:

C
They've got one in Honolulu, they've got one in Kyiv too,
Am G
They got four of them in Sydney, and a couple in Kathmandu.
Am C G
So whether you sing or pull a pint, you'll always have a job,
Am G Am
'Cause where ever you go around the world, you'll find an Irish pub.

Verse:

Now that design is fairly simple, and it usually works the same,
You'll have "Razor Houghton" scoring in the Ireland - England game,
And you know your in an Irish pub, the minute you're in the door,
For a couple of boys with bodhrans, will be murdering Christy Moore.

Chorus

Am C G
Now the owner is Norwegian and the manager comes from Cork,
And the lad that's holding up the bar says 'Only Eejits Work'
He was born and bred in Bolton, but his mammy's from Kildare,
And he's going to make his fortune soon, and move to County Clare.

Chorus

Instrumental Riff: Kesh Jig: G - D - G - D - C
